

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.87
PARTIAL PRICE LIST—1951

LIBRARY
JAN 28 1957
U. S. Department of Agriculture
Posts Plant Nursery

21 Henderson Terrace
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

Your choice of ~~20~~ varieties of the most beautiful of the Tall Bearded Irises, ea.10 to .50

~~Some very pretty Japanese Iris, ea.25 to .50~~

The best of the Siberian Iris.....25 and .35

~~3~~ Wild Species of Iris, very hardy, make beautiful foliage plants around base of house wall and have exquisite, long stemmed flowers that can be cut for house20 to .30

~~16~~ Different Perennial Phlox, the kinds you have always wanted, each.....25

16 varieties of Day Lillies, some of the best ones, much prettier than your grandmother ever had
each .25 to $1.00

~~16~~ different beautiful Alliums, all colors. Unless you have raised them you do not know how much they can add to your perennial bed or rock garden, each.....10 to .25

We have ~~now 50~~ different Flowering Border Plants, all colors; probably many you have not got, each25 to .75

Also ~~88~~ choice Rock Garden Plants, many colors. If you cannot find enough here to plant your rock garden, you will be hard to please

each, .05 to .75

6 glorious Azaleas, different colors. If you have never tried any of the outdoor Azalias you have been missing something good..... $1.50 to $2.50
4 choice Dwarf Evergreens.....50 to $1.00

A few Hansen's Bush Cherry. Pick your cherries off a low bush—no ladder needed. Ornamental and useful.....$1.00

We are expecting some new Trees and Shrubs this spring, which we have never had before, that are considered very high grade. Ask about them on or about June 1st.

We have many Sundries for Gardeners:

Tools, Insect poisons and Sprays, Plant Hormones, Fertilizers, Hand Hoes, ~~Hoe Nozzles~~ and Connectors, etc., etc., etc.

We like to have visitors—

Come and bring your friends to see our Plants when in bloom, and ask us all the questions you wish to.